A ray of hope shines in the dark

Meet Kedarnath Mishra

Sales Manager, Jamshedpur

When Tej Narayan Mahto suddenly passed away, Lalita Devi's world came crashing down. To add to the widow's misery, her in-laws disowned her. On the verge of resigning to fate, she received a call from Kedarnath Mishra, informing her about her husband's insurance policy. In time, he helped her through the claim settlement process and offered guidance to become a Reliance Nippon Life Advisor. Kedarnath's support was instrumental in turning around Lalita Devi's life and future.

A little patience can make a big difference

Kanika Singh
Branch Service Officer, Dehradun

Mrs. Agarwal was distraught after her son's untimely death and unaware that he had the foresight to buy Life Insurance. It was Kanika's empathy and helpfulness, as she kindly explained to her the details of her son's policy, that helped her turn her life around at a time when she needed it most.
